

Murder in Bern!

World Shocker: James Bond is dead

So the invincible James Bond will not get to die another day. He was found dead in his apartment in Bern at 5:30am this morning – shot in cold blood. According to the coroner's report he was murdered at 1:30am and died instantly. Mr Bond is survived by his wife Ms. Money Penny – Bond.

MI6 have refused to comment on the event although one source commented that M is in total shock and was heard saying "The World is not enough without James, James Bond"

Prime Minister vows to catch perpetrator who got the licence to kill James Bond

No. 1 suspect Mr. R. Browne is deemed to be on the run when police failed to contact him. Mr Browne was a close associate of Mr. Bond for years but there are rumours that the pair had fallen out and have not spoken to each other for the last year. Speech writer for Mr. Bond, Mr J. Byrne said he would do his best to pay homage to "his colleague and friend" in his next speech. Amazon explorer Mr. C. Twomey said he would "travel the world" in search of the murderer. World renowned author Mr C. Hartigan was at a book signing and not available to comment. Minister for Great Britain vowed "we won't stop till we find out – who got the licence to kill James Bond?"

